

P
Univ
T

35

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO BULLETIN

DECEMBER, 1952

COMING EVENTS

MONDAY, DECEMBER 1st

- Women's Faculty Union—Dinner meeting. "An African Trek (Cape Town to Chissamba)." Professor M. Doreen Smith. Falconer Hall. 6 p.m.
- Organ Recital—by Frederick Silvester. Convocation Hall. 5 p.m.
- Hart House Theatre Production—"Liliom." Directed by Robert Gill. Nov. 28th to Dec. 6th inclusive. 8.30 p.m.
- Toronto Field Naturalists' Club—Showing of coloured slides by members. Museum Theatre. 8 p.m.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2nd

- Victoria University—Convocation, for the conferring of Honorary Degrees. Opening lecture in the MacKay Memorial Lecture series, by the Very Rev. Jesse H. Arnup. Victoria College Chapel. 8 p.m.
- Department of Mathematics—Colloquium. "What is Mathematics?" series. "Hills and Hollows." Professor I. R. Pounder. Room 11, University College. 4 p.m.
- Toronto Graduate School of Theological Studies—"Christianity and History" lecture series. "History and the Individual." Professor John Line. Sheraton Hall, Wycliffe College. 5 p.m.
- Academy of Medicine—Stated Meeting. "Surgery of the Colon." Dr. George Crile, Department of Surgery, Cleveland Clinic. Osler Hall. 8.30 p.m. Dinner at University Club. 6.45 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3rd

- MacKay Memorial Lectures—Second lecture by The Very Rev. Jesse H. Arnup. Emmanuel College Lecture Hall. 4 p.m.
- Department of Slavic Studies—lecture series. "South Slavic Heroic Poetry." Dr. S. Skendi. Room 8, University College. 5 p.m.
- Royal Ontario Museum Theatre—Finnish National Concert. 8 p.m.
- The Art Gallery of Toronto—Open Night. "Painters on Paintings," Guided Tours by George Pepper and Edwy Cooke; "How to Make Lino Block Christmas Cards," Demonstration by Central Technical School students; Film: "Looking at Sculpture." 8 p.m.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4th

- University College—lecture series. "St. Evremond and the Duchesse Mazarin." Professor E. A. Joliat. Room 8, University College. 5 p.m.
- MacKay Memorial Lectures—Third lecture by The Very Rev. Jesse H. Arnup. Emmanuel College Lecture Hall. 4 p.m.
- Victoria College Alumnae Association—Christmas Music Box. Music Room, Wymilwood. 8 p.m.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5th

- University College French Ciné-Club—Film showing. "Knock." Museum Theatre. 4 p.m. and 8.15 p.m.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6th

Royal Canadian Institute—"New Highways of Sight and Sound." Dr. Maurice E. Strieby, American Telephone and Telegraph Company, New York. Convocation Hall. 8.15 p.m.

Hart House—Athletic Night. Basketball—Brockport College.
Intermural Swimming and Wrestling. 8 p.m.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 7th

The Art Gallery of Toronto—Concert by Walter Prystaski, Violinist; Earle Moss, accompanist. 3 p.m.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 8th

Hart House Theatre—"The Cricket on the Hearth" presented by the Dickens Fellowship. Also Dec. 9th at 8.30 p.m.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 9th

Archaeological Institute of America, Toronto Branch—"The Near Eastern House." Professor R. J. Williams. Museum Theatre. 4.30 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 10th

Women's Faculty Union—Luncheon meeting. Falconer Hall. 12-2 p.m.

Department of Slavic Studies—lecture series. "Byzantium and the Slavonic World in the XII Century." Steven Runciman. Room 11, University College. 5 p.m.

English Goethe Society, Toronto Branch—"Coleridge's German Notebooks: a report of work in progress." Professor K. Coburn. Wymilwood. 8.15 p.m.

The Art Gallery of Toronto—"Painters on Paintings," Guided Tours by A. Bayefsky and J. W. G. Macdonald; Demonstration of Oil Painting by R. York Wilson; Films: "The Vienna Treasures" and "Pen Point Percussion." 8 p.m.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 11th

St. Michael's College—Centennial lecture series. "Education and the Humanities." Jacques Maritain. Convocation Hall. 8.15 p.m.

Hart House Theatre—Victoria College Dramatic Club presents "Ring Around the Moon." Also Dec. 12th and 13th at 8.30 p.m.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13th

Royal Canadian Institute—"Exploring Panama's Unknown North Coast." Dr. M. W. Stirling, Director, Bureau of American Ethnology, Smithsonian Institution, Washington. Convocation Hall. 8.15 p.m.

Hart House—Athletic Night. Basketball—Buffalo State.
Water Polo—McGill. 8 p.m.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 14th

Trinity College—Annual Carol Service in College Chapel. 11 a.m.
Concert by Elizabeth Cleland, Pianist. 9 p.m.

Royal Ontario Museum—Division of Education Film Showing: "Three Dawns to Sydney"; Gallery talks. 2.30 p.m.

The Art Gallery of Toronto—Concert by John Coveart, Pianist. 3 p.m.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 15th

Ontario Society of Biologists—Meeting in Room 203, Botany Building. 8 p.m.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 20th

Royal Canadian Institute—"The Mystery of Arthritis." Dr. Wallace Graham. Convocation Hall. 8.15 p.m.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21st

The Art Gallery of Toronto—Concert by Park Road Baptist Church Choir. 3 p.m.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 27th

Hart House Theatre—"Beauty and the Beast" presented by the Toronto Children's Players. Also Dec. 29th and 30th. 2.30 p.m.

EXHIBITIONS

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM

A special "East West" exhibition will be on display in the Archaeology Galleries until the end of January, 1953.

THE ART GALLERY OF TORONTO

"Canadian Group of Painters" Exhibition continues to January 4, 1953.

THE SIGMUND SAMUEL CANADIANA GALLERY

The "Upper Canada" exhibition continues throughout December.

VICTORIA COLLEGE

Pictures by John Hall will be on view in Alumni Hall to December 23.

NEWS ITEMS

Staff Notes

Professor George W. Brown received the degree of LL.D. at the Autumn Convocation of the University of British Columbia on October 30. He also participated in a public symposium, presided over by Professor F. H. Soward, on the subject, "What's wrong with Canadian history?"

Miss K. H. Coburn has been elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature.

Professors G. H. Duff and D. F. Forward attended the Canadian Plant Physiologists Conference at Queen's University on November 3 and 4. Dr. Duff presented a paper on "The Pattern of Cambial and Apical Activity in Pinus resinosa."

Professor J. H. Soper addressed the South Peel Nature Club on November 6, at Port Credit, on "The Flora of Southern Ontario."

L. A. Garay has been appointed to the advisory board of the Orchid Journal, an international revue of orchidology.

Dr. F. M. Heichelheim gave an address, "The Birth of Jewish Literature, the Bible as a Book" for the Jewish Book Month in the Jewish Public Library on November 9. He read a paper on "Price Trends in Ancient History" for the Victoria College Classics Club on November 13.

Professor Northrop Frye addressed the English Graduate Association of New York University on October 16 on the topic, "Shakespeare's Comedy of Humors."

Dr. William C. Wonders was senior geographer with the Canadian observer party, U.S.N. Arctic Weather Station Re-supply Mission, 1952. He was attached to the U.S.C.G.C. "Eastwind."

Professor Chester Martin, who recently retired as Head of the Department of History, was the guest of his former colleagues in the Department and other friends at a dinner in Hart House on November 7.

Dr. U. Leo read a paper on "Poesía y Poetas Venezolanos" at the meeting of the Southern Ontario Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese held at Queen's University last month.

Professor H. S. M. Coxeter lectured on "The enumeration of compact Lie groups" at the University of Chicago, on "Configurations of circles and spheres" at the University of Illinois, and on "The mathematics of Leonardo da Vinci" at Southern Illinois University.

Professor J. A. Jacobs attended the annual meeting of the Geological Society of America held in Boston November 13-15, and gave an address entitled, "A new approach to the problem of estimating temperatures in the Earth's core and mantle."

Professor R. J. Williams gave a series of three lectures on the Old Testament to a Bible Forum at Islington United Church in November.

Professor J. A. Irving presented a paper on "The Humanities and the Idea of a Liberal Education" at the Conference on Universities and World Affairs held at Pinebrook Camp, Saranac Lake, September 2-5, under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, and Syracuse University.

Professor J. R. Seeley spent a week as Research Consultant to the Council of State Governors in Chicago.

Professor R. Alexander Sim was a visiting professor at the 1952 summer school of the University of Maryland.

Professor J. D. Ketchum served on the Editorial Committee for the revised "Readings in Social Psychology" just published by Henry Holt for the Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues.

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Psychological Association at Banff last June, Professor D. C. Williams was named President-Elect of the Association for the present session.

Professor W. Line has attended meetings recently as a member of the Mental Hygiene Consultative Committee of United Nations at United Nations Headquarters in New York. This Committee, under the chairmanship of Dr. T. C. Rennie, is studying the bearing of human relations on health problems in the selection and employment of personnel at United Nations.

Dr. W. E. Blatz gave a series of lectures, October 29-November 7, at regional conferences of the Alberta Teachers Association at four centres, Medicine Hat, Hanna, Coronation and Calgary.

Professor B. E. Shore gave addresses on Balkan themes to the Pushkin Club of Hamilton on Nov. 14, the International Alumni Association on Nov. 18, and the University Women's Club on Nov. 24, and on "Religious Life in the Soviet Union" in Rosedale Presbyterian Church on Nov. 17.

Professor L. I. Strakhovsky delivered a lecture on "V. A. Zhukovsky—father of Russian Lyric Poetry" on the occasion of the centenary of his death, in the Russian Orthodox Church of Christ the Saviour, on Nov. 16.

Dr. Gordon Patterson attended a meeting of the Advisory Aeroballistics Panel of the United States Navy in Washington in October.

During the week of September 21, Professor C. E. Phillips travelled through the Peace River district of Alberta to address three conventions of teachers.

Professor B. C. Diltz addressed the National Council of the Teachers of English at the annual convention at Boston, November 26–29 on the subject, "English—for Breadth or Depth."

Professor D. V. Love has been appointed Chairman of the Committee on Forestry of the Conservation Council of Ontario.

Professor R. C. Hosie gave an address at the Silvicultural Field Meeting, Canadian Pulp and Paper Association, on September 12 at Manitoulin Island entitled "Regeneration in the Mixedwood Stands of the Pulpwood Forest."

Professor A. S. Michell gave an illustrated address to the Forestry Alumni Association on October 17 entitled "Trends and New Developments in the Transportation of Wood in Eastern Canada."

Dean J. W. B. Sisam addressed the Northwestern Section of the Canadian Institute of Forestry on October 23 at Port Arthur. His subject was "The Forestry Profession Today." Dean Sissam gave an address to the Fort William–Port Arthur Branch of the University of Toronto Alumni Association on October 22 entitled "Forest Values in Northwestern Ontario." Dean Sisam also addressed the Kiwanis Club of Galt on October 17 on "Forest Conservation in Southern Ontario."

Extramural lectures will be given during December by Dr. D. H. J. MacDonald before the Renfrew and District Dental Society, by Dean R. G. Ellis before the Essex County Dental Association at Windsor, by Dr. J. D. Purves before the Peterborough and District Dental Society, by Dr. W. G. McIntosh before the London Dental Society, and by Dr. P. G. Anderson before the Ottawa Dental Society at Ottawa.

Dr. R. E. Moyers will speak before the Michigan Society of Dentistry for Children in Detroit on December 3 on the subject, "Interceptive Orthodontics."

Professor Charles E. Hendry attended meetings of the National Committee of Canadian Schools of Social Work in Ottawa, November 6–8. Professor Hendry will attend the International Conference of Social Work in Madras, India, December 14–19, and will give an address on "The Contribution of Community Organization to Raising Living Standards in Underserved Areas." He will spend some time in Israel on the return trip.

Professor John S. Morgan spoke to the Hamilton Branch of the Canadian Association of Social Workers on "Social Workers and their Ethical Responsibilities." Professor Morgan attended the annual meeting of the Canadian Institute of Public Administration in Montreal, October 2–5.

Professor Albert Rose spoke to the Lion's Club of Agincourt on "Some Problems in the Development of the Metropolitan Area."

Kenneth E. Kidd, now Joint-Curator of Ethnology in the Royal Ontario Museum of Archaeology, has returned after a year's leave of absence on a John Simon Guggenheim Memorial fellowship. Mr. Kidd's study to determine whether trade goods could be used as a means of dating Indian sites in northeastern North America took him through the New England and Middle States where he examined museum and private collections and searched in libraries, archives of historical societies as well as at Yale and Harvard Universities, the Corning Glass Centre and other depositories.

L. L. Snyder attended the Seventieth Stated Meeting of the American Ornithologists' Union held at Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, October 20-24, in the capacity of Chairman of the Committee on Nominations and as a Member of Council.

Professor D. H. Murray attended the Teachers' Seminar in Pharmaceutical Chemistry sponsored by the American Council of Pharmaceutical Education, at the University of Michigan, during the summer.

Professor R. M. Baxter attended the Plant Science Seminar of the American Pharmaceutical Association, in Philadelphia, in August.

The Canadian Conference of Pharmaceutical Faculties met in Toronto during August. Papers were presented by Professor H. J. Fuller, Dr. G. C. Walker, and Mrs. I. E. Stauffer, members of the staff of the Ontario College of Pharmacy.

Dean F. N. Hughes gave a series of lectures at the annual summer school of the Pharmaceutical Society of the Province of British Columbia, early in June.

The Institute on Hospital Pharmacy, sponsored by the American Hospital Association, held its annual conference in Toronto during June. Dean F. N. Hughes presented a paper on "Chemistry and Incompatibilities of some Newer Drugs"; and Professor G. C. Walker gave a lecture on "A Proposed Layout for Manufacturing in Hospital Pharmacies."

Professor H. J. Fuller presented a paper on "Reasonable Bargaining Power and Fair Trade" to the Section on Education and Legislation at the American Pharmaceutical Association Convention in Philadelphia, on August 20.

College, Faculty and Department Notes

During the week of November 10 the Department of History was host to two distinguished visitors, Professor George O. Sayles of Queen's University, Belfast, and Professor Guy Frégault, Head of the Department of History, University of Montreal. Professor Sayles spoke to the staff and graduate students on the Modus tenendi parlamentum, while Professor Frégault, who was the Gray Lecturer for 1952, addressed various groups and classes in the Department and elsewhere in the University. He spoke to the Modern History Club on the subject, "Canadiens and Canadians."

Professor Robert B. MacLeod of Cornell University visited the Department of Psychology from November 26-30 in connection with a survey of psychology teaching in Canada by the Canadian Social Science Research Council. On November 27 Professor MacLeod lectured under the auspices of the School of Graduate Studies on "The Cross-Cultural Approach to Psychological Problems," using his recent experiences in East Africa as illustrations.

Mr. Harold Ridley of St. Thomas' Hospital, London, was a visitor to the Department of Ophthalmology on November 3. He spoke at the Academy of Medicine on "Intra-ocular acrylic lenses."

Appointments

Dean R. O. Hurst was recently appointed Dean Emeritus of the Ontario College of Pharmacy. He will continue to be an active member of the staff for the next two years.

Gina Cigna, formerly leading soprano with the Metropolitan Opera and La Scala, Milan, and more recently head of the vocal faculty of the Verdi Conservatory, Milan, has been appointed to the voice faculty of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto.

The University of Toronto Library

New titles added since October 15, 1952:

Acta morphologica

Annual review of cytology

Anzeiger für die Altertumswissenschaft

Archivo Español de Morfología

Atlante

Bibliographie internationale de philosophie

Chemie der Erde

Desideratum

Economic geology. Monographs

Hungarica acta biologica

Index to legal periodicals. Interim supplement

Industrial and labor relations review

Irish dental association. Journal

Irisleabher Ceilteach

Labor arbitration reports

Socialist commentary

Society for British entomology. Transactions

Würzburger Jahrbücher für die Altertumswissenschaft

Royal Canadian Institute exchanges recently added to the university library catalogue:

Accademia ligure di scienze e lettere. Atti.

Buenos Aires: ten publications from the Argentine Museum of Natural Sciences.

The University of Toronto Press

Recent publications include:

The Celestial Cycle. By Watson Kirkconnell. $7.50

Vision through the Atmosphere. By W. E. K. Middleton. $8.50

Ceramics for the Potter. By Ruth Home. $5.50

Round about Industrial Britain, 1830-1860. By C. R. Fay. $5.00

Changing Concepts of Time. By Harold A. Innis. $2.50

Canadian Journal of Economics and Political Science, XVIII, (4). $1.25

Canadian Journal of Mathematics, IV, (4). $1.50

The Phoenix, VI, (3). 75 cents

University of Toronto Quarterly, XXII, (1). 75 cents

Other Books Published

Science and Values. By John A. Irving. (Ryerson, $3.50).

The Role of Groups in World Reconstruction. By Charles E. Hendry (Women's Press, New York City).

Copy for the BULLETIN should reach the Publicity Department, Room 226, Simcoe Hall (Midway 6611, local 51) by the 18th of each month.

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2016 with funding from
University of Toronto

<https://archive.org/details/bulletin195212>

